

Summer School Avv. Giovanni Valcavi

BEHAVIORAL LAW AND ECONOMICS

Varese, June 26th- July 1th, 2022

THE SUMMER COURSE

Directors:

Professor Rossella Locatelli and Professor Barbara Pozzo.

Co-director: Professor Francesco Vella.

Tutorship: Professor Ilaria Capelli

The Summer School Avv. Giovanni Valcavi - "Behavioral Law and Economics" is a high-level programme with the aim to provide to all of its participants a multidisciplinary approach.

This intensive course gives an overview of the new trends in legal and economic sciences. As the Behavioral Economics taught, in their assumption, people's limited rationality. For this reason, this course has the aim to offer the essential knowledge to understand the key subject, considering both the legal and the economic (and financial) aspect. The course will promote discussion among participants and experts, with an interactive approach.

Classes are taught in English and Italian.

THE LOCATION

Classes will be held at University of Insubria-Villa Toeplitz – Varese (Italy).

Varese, settled near Milan, is known as the "garden-city" and its natural environment provides the ideal location for intellectual reflection and discussion.
